Officer Bortolin touched the lives of many children, parents and teachers through his position as a school resource officer and it is a tribute to his dedication to them that his service is being held at Southridge High School (9625 SW 125th St.). The family welcomes the media to film the ceremony both inside and outside of the school.

As members of the media enter the parking lot for Southridge High School, they will be guided to a designated parking area that will accommodate large size vehicles.
